CANCELLATION, WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICY

Student's Right to Cancel

A Student may cancel an enrollment agreement or withdraw from the American Institute of Law at any time. A student who intends to cancel or withdraw must notify the law school in writing following the directions outlined in the law school catalog. Any money due the student will be refunded within 30 days. The student has a right to a full (100%) refund of all monies paid, Fees, if cancellation is within seven (7) calendar days after midnight of the date the Agreement was signed. A student who cancels or withdraws from the program later than seven (7) days after midnight of the day on which the enrollment agreement is signed will be subject to a one-time non-refundable Registration Fee of $100, the WestLaw Membership Fee of $150.00 and the Exam Setup Fee of $100.00.

Refund Policy

The student has a right to a full (100%) refund of all refundable monies paid, if a student withdraws or cancels WITHIN 7 DAYS after midnight (Pacific Time) of the start of classes. In addition, the student may withdraw from a course after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable monies.

The school of law follows a strict refund policy. Example: a student pays \$5,490 tuition plus a \$100 Registration Fee, a \$150 WestLaw Membership fee and a \$100 Exam license fee, in full, for a total payment of \$5,840 for the 52-week program. If the student then decides to withdraw after 13 weeks, then the student would be entitled to a refund calculated in the following manner: $52 \text{ (total weeks of the program)} - 13 \text{ (weeks of tuition used)} = 39 \text{ (weeks of tuition that was paid but not used)}$; $39 / 52 = .75 \text{ or } 75\%$ (the percentage of the unused tuition to the full tuition, excluding any tuition scholarships); $\$5,490 \text{ (cost of tuition only, excluding tuition scholarships, the Registration Fee, the WestLaw Membership Fee and ExamSoft License Fee are nonrefundable fees)} \times .75 = \$4,117.50$; \$4,117.50 would be the amount refunded to

The period of given instruction is counted on a weekly basis, regardless of the actual day that a particular course begins. Each week starts every Sunday at 12:00am and ends on Saturday at 11:59pm (Pacific Time). If notice is received after a particular week starts, then, that week is counted as a week of given instruction. If the school cancels a course, the school will make a full refund of all charges.

This agreement is a legally binding instrument when signed by the student and accepted by the law school. Your signature on this agreement acknowledges that you have been given reasonable time to read and understand it and that you have been given: (a) a written statement of the law school's cancellation, withdrawal and refund policy; (b) a law school catalog that includes a description of the educational services, including all material facts concerning the law school and the program, which are likely to affect your decision to enroll. My signature or electronic signature below certifies that I have read, understood, and agreed to my rights and responsibilities, and that the law school's cancellation, withdrawal and refund policies are clear to me. I understand that I am financially responsible for any and all

ADENDUM TO ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT: ACADEMIC STANDING

Please read the following excerpts from the American Institute of Law catalog, pages 14 and 15. Please read and initial to confirm that you understand and acknowledge that good academic standing is required for graduation and to be awarded the Juris Doctor degree and that the following policies apply:

TIMING OF EVALUATIONS

Students are enrolled at AIL for one academic year at a time. A student's academic status will be re-evaluated and determined at the end of each academic year.

GOOD STANDING

A student who has a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 ("C") or better will be in good standing.

PROBATION

A student will be placed on Academic Probation under the following situations:

1. When that student finishes an academic year with a cumulative grade point average less than 2.0 but not less than
2. When that student is transferring from another law school and was on academic probation or was academically dismissed
3. When that student begins an academic term at AIL under the California Bar's "Starting First-Year Law Studies Over" (Do over) program; or
4. When that student withdraws from an academic term at AIL and is allowed to re-start in a later term.

ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

A student will be Academically Dismissed under the following situations:

1. When that student is on probation and fails to bring their cumulative grade point average up to 2.0 or better by the of the probationary period.
2. When that student withdraws from an academic term at AIL, is allowed to re-start in a later term and then fails to complete that later term; or
3. When that student finishes an academic year with a grade point average less than 1.5 for that year (regardless of their cumulative grade point average).
4. FIRST-YEAR LAW STUDENTS ONLY: When a first-year student fails a class or classes that result in that student having less than 48 consecutive weeks of passing credit, then that student will be academically dismissed from the Juris Doctor program. Also, if a student finishes the first-year of studies with a grade point average of less than 1.5, then that student will be academically dismissed from the Juris Doctor program. In either case, that student will not be certified to take the First Year Law Students' Examination.

GRADUATION

Students become eligible to graduate provided each required course is completed with a passing Grade and the student finishes their studies with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better.

Should any modifications to the academic standing policy become necessary, all students will be notified prior to implementation.

PREQUALIFICATION ADENDUM TO ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

I am aware of the fact that the California Committee of Bar Examiners requires 60 semester units (or the equivalent) of undergraduate education, transferable to a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited institution, for law school studies to commence.

I have been advised that I should have my pre-admissions education evaluated by the California Committee of Bar examiners prior to enrolling in law school. If the California Committee of Bar examiners does not find my records sufficient when I attempt to register as a law school student, I understand that I will be required to withdraw from school at that time. I will be able to apply for readmission as soon as all required credits are completed.

I also understand that I will be responsible for all tuition and fees for the weeks I attended school before my withdrawal. All monies paid in excess of the fees and pro-rated tuition will be returned to me by American Institute of Law. My signature or electronic signature below certifies that I have read, understood, and agreed to this prequalification addendum.

Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code §6060(h) and Title 4, Division 1, Chapter 1 Rule 4.3(l) of the Rules of the State Bar of California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in this law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.
