Briefly state your request:

Please state the reason for your request:

Academic  FYLSX Preparation  Medical  Family  Financial  Other (explain)

I am aware that if I have previously withdrawn or if my leave of absence has extended beyond one year, that I must re-apply for admission. Regardless of the length of my leave of absence, I understand that I must petition the University for readmission explaining how my circumstances have changed before my readmission petition will be considered. I fully understand that readmission is at the sole discretion of American Institute of Law.

I am aware that the California Bar Rule requires 24-26 weeks consecutive study, to receive ½ year credit or 48-52 weeks 1 year; consecutive study to receive 1 year credit. Withdrawing from American Institute of Law, may result in the loss of credit(s).

I am aware that upon successful completion of my first year of law school at American Institute of Law, I will have three consecutive opportunities (administrations) to pass the First Year Law Student Exam (FYLSX). If I have not passed the FYLSX after the third administration, I will be unable to re-enter or continue attending American Institute of Law until I have passed the FYLSX.
